

The Role of Low Sodium Substitutes for Population Health

Time	Session Title	Moderator/Speaker
05:00pm – 05:05pm	Context Setting	Professor Vivekanand Jha Executive Director, The George Institute for Global Health, India
Session I: Presentations
05:05pm – 05:13pm	Salt Reduction: A Critical Public Health Measure for Prevention and Control of Hypertension	Professor D Prabhakaran Executive Director, Centre for Chronic Disease Control (CCDC)
05:13pm – 05:20pm	Low Sodium Salt Substitutes (LSSS): A Key Sodium Reduction Strategy at the Population Level	Dr. Thomas Frieden President and CEO, Resolve to Save Lives
05:20pm – 05:28pm	Global Evidence on LSS: Experience from the SSaSS trial	Professor Bruce Neal Executive Director, The George Institute for Global Health, Australia
Session II: Panel Discussion
05:28pm – 05:58pm	Advancing LSSS as a Population Measure to Address Hypertension: Implementation Experience	Moderator Professor Vivekanand Jha Executive Director, The George Institute for Global Health, India Panelists Dr. Rajan Ravichandran Director, MIOT Institute of Nephrology, Chairman, Sapiens Health Foundation Dr. Meenakshi Bajaj Dietician, Tamil Nadu Government Multi Super Speciality Hospital, Chennai Professor Dike Ojji Faculty, University of Abuja
05:58pm – 06:00pm	Closing remarks	